DEATH OF REV. J. J. BLACKSHEAR.

News reached Nashville Tuesday morning of the sudden death of Rev. J. J. Blackshear, who at the time was pastoring the Second Baptist Church at Columbus, Ohio. Rev. Blackshear was possibly one of the most learned men in the Baptist Church, an able as well as an eloquent divine. The telegram received by Dr. E. W. D. Isaac, Secretary of the B. Y. P. U. Board, was sent by Rev. L. G. Jordan, of Louisville, Ky., who is Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board. There was no explanation other than that Rev. Blackshear had been burned to death, thus ending a very brief career as pastor of this noted congregation. This information was received while the Publishing Board was in session. Chairman Clark said an investigation would be made at once. Rev. Blackshear was in Nashville last during the National Convention, which was held in 1899, at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church. He was a graduate of Roger Williams University, of the class of 1895, and is therefore well known among the students of the school. He was also pastor for a time of the historic Mt. Zion Baptist Church. It was while pastoring this charge that he was called to the Corinthian Baptist Church at Indianapolis, Ind., where he remained for two or three years. After this he moved to Texas, but decided to go North again. The friends here will join in deep sympathy with the sorrowing family. Messages of condolence will be sent to his brother, Prof. Blackshear, who is principal of the Prairie View State Normal at Prairie View, Texas.

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the National Baptist Publishing Board was held Tuesday at the rooms of Secretary Boyd at the Publishing House. The out-of-town members were not present, neither was Rev. G. B. Taylor. It was learned that all were detained on account of rush of business or ill-health. Chairman Clark stated that the most important matter under consideration was the missionary work, which was disposed of in the most satisfactory manner. There have been about nine new missionaries placed in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Arkansas, Texas and Kentucky during the present quarter. No further action was taken at this meeting on the Jamestown exhibit to be made by the Baptists, as this matter had been left in Secretary Boyd's hands. The proposition to make needed additions to the Publishing House received only little consideration, as the Board is awaiting developments. The meeting adjourned at 11:30 until the next monthly meeting.
